[XVIII*th* Year.] THURSDAY, November 11, 1762. [N°. 914.]

NEW-YORK, October 25.

SINCE our laſt the Captains Colgan, Durham and Tanner arrived here from the Havannah, in 14 Days: By them we have an Account, that the Provincials were to embark for the Continent in 5 Days after they ſailed, and were to be convoyed by his Majeſty's Ship the Intrepide, of 64 Guns; and that a private Soldier's Share of the Caſh found at the Havannah, would amount to about 30 Dollars.

By the above Veſſels we received a Copy of the Articles of the Capitulation of the Havannah, in Spaniſh, which we got tranſlated for the Benefit of our Cuſtomers, and are as follow, viz.

Articles of Capitulation, agreed on between Sir George Pocock, Knight of the Bath, and Admiral of the Blue; And the Earl of Albemarle, Commander of his Britannic Majeſty's Troops; and the Marquis del Real Tranſporte, Admiral of his Catholic Majeſty's Squadron; and Don Juan de Prado, Governor of the Havannah, on the Part of his Catholic Majeſty, for rendering up the Garriſon and Spaniſh Ships in the Port, belonging to the Havannah.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) Oct. 2.

THERE are now in this Harbour 53 Sail of Veſſels, viz. 14 Ships, 5 Snows, 1 Xebeque, 7 Brigantines, 11 Schooners, and 17 Sloops; of which 7 are Veſſels that have put in, in Diſtreſs; one is a Man of War: 11 lies Windbound, and 17 are near loaded.

Our immenſe Crop of Rice may now be ſaid to be ſecure, the Hurricane Seaſon having paſſed off in very moderate Weather with refreſhing Showers.

The Ship Two Brothers, Joſeph Smith, Maſter, of and from New-York for Havannah, ſailed from New-York the 15th ult. and ſprung a Leak the 17th in the Night, which obliged her to put in here. She proves ſo leaky that ſhe muſt be unloaded.

The Sloop Orleans, of New-York, John Williams Maſter, laden with Sugars, from the Havannah for Liverpool, ſprung a Leak on the 25th ult. which increaſed ſo much the two following Days, that ſhe has likewiſe been obliged to put in here. Brigadier-General Haviland, an Officer who has diſtinguiſhed himſelf upon all Occaſions during the preſent American War, is arrived in ſaid Sloop on his way to England.

Oct. 6. By the laſt Accounts from the Country of the Creek Indians, we are informed, that two Indians of the Upper Creek Towns, who had been at St. Auguſtine, were returned, and had brought a Talk to their Countrymen from the Spaniards, who deſire them to come and get Preſents; "for (ſay they) we have taken ſome Engliſh Veſſels, and have plenty of Goods. We do not deſire you to help us, only be neuter, and in a ſhort Time we expect to have Charleſtown. It is on your Account we have made War with the Engliſh, who wanted us to join them and cut off all the Indians, but we refuſed; and this was the Cauſe of the War."—Notwithſtanding this talk, our Advices add, that ſeveral Gangs of the Creek Indians were gone out to War againſt the Spaniards. The People of Cheehaw or Point declare, they never will make Peace with the Spaniard; and if they bring any Spaniards in alive, they will burn them before the Doors of thoſe that love them.

Extract of a Letter dated Havannah, Sept. 23.

"The Royal in general gained great Honour during the Siege, but eſpecially the Day of the Storm. They firſt entered the Breach (if it may be ſo called) Sword in Hand, led by Lieut. Forbes, now a Captain in the 42d. The Breach did not allow of more than one Man abreaſt, and was ſo ſituated, that had they miſſed a Step, they muſt have gone headlong a Hundred Yards into the Sea on one Side, or the Ditch on the other. Indeed the very Men who entered againſt great and ſmall Arms of the Enemy, were afraid to return by the ſame Way, leſt they ſhould tumble down, even after the Place was reduced, and the Affair all over. It is agreed there never was a more deſperate Attempt, nor more bravely executed. Upon the whole of this Expedition, which has been long and ſevere, borne from the Enemy and Climate, never a Man (one excepted) has been known to ſhew the leaſt Backwardneſs, nor has been heard to complain of hard Duty; though many, both Officers and Men, have been ſeveral Days in the Trenches without being relieved.

"The Dons were a little more obſtinate than we expected; but had they known how to diſpoſe and make the moſt of their Strength, they might have encreaſed our Difficulties. They muſtered 6000 Men under Arms when the Place ſurrendered; and we were not able to bring out more than Half that Number fit for Duty.

"In the King of Spain's Warehouſes were found a large Quantity of Tar, and other naval Stores in Proportion. The Prize Goods all go to England on Account of the Captors, except the Dry Goods belonging to the Royal Company, which are to be ſold here on the ſame Account. The Prize Veſſels will be left, owing to want of Hands, except one Ship which carries home Sugars to be ſold there for the Benefit of the Captors.

"'Tis uncertain when Lord Albemarle and Sir George Pocock will leave us, but 'tis imagined, ſome Time in November.

"Things now go on here quiet and eaſy, the Spaniards are brought into pretty good Order, and have no Reaſon to complain of any Hardſhips being put upon them by their Conquerors. A ſmall Detachment of 300 or 400 Men, under Major Monypenny, ſails in a Day or Two to reduce the Matanzas, an inconſiderable Government, but independent of the Havannah, at about 20 Leagues diſtance from hence.

"Commodore Keppel will ſail in a few Days for Jamaica, with ſome Ships of War; and it is ſaid, will cruize ſome Time off Cape St. Nicholas, as it ſeems the French Men of War and Privateers do great Damage to the Trade that Way."

BOSTON, October 18.

We hear from Biddeford in the County of York, that at their Inferior Court lately held there, a remarkable Cauſe was tried between Thomas Hammet of Berwick, in ſaid County, Yeomen, Plaintiff, and Peter Steple of Kittery, in ſaid County, Gentleman, Defendant, for the Defendant's debauching, raviſhing, and carnally knowing the Plaintiff's Wife, &c. and that after a full hearing of ſix Hours the Jury brought in their Verdict for the Plaintiff to recover againſt the Defendant One Thouſand Pounds Lawful Money Damages, and Coſts.

PHILADELPHIA, November 4.

Monday last arrived the Carolina, Capt. Friend, in ten Weeks from Portſmouth, and ſix from Madeira. When the Ship left London, it was generally known, that a Peace was negotiating, but the Concluſion not expected, till the Event of the Expedition to the Havannah, and ſome other Enterprizes, ſhould be known. In Madeira there were late Advices from Liſbon, that a Body of the Engliſh and Portugueſe Army had penetrated Spain, and an advanced Party, conſiſting of Engliſh and Portugueſe Light Horſe, having attacked, in the Night, a Town, in which were 1900 Spaniſh Troops, the Spaniards ſurrendered themſelves Priſoners of War; but in the Morning, perceiving the Smallneſs of the Number they had ſubmitted to, they took to their Arms again, and began to fire upon them; when the Main Body came up, and finiſhed the Diſpute, putting all the Spaniards to the Sword, except about Seventy private Men, and Sixteen Officers,—After which the Siege of Almeida was raiſed, and the Spaniards were retiring out of Portugal.——The Name of the Town taken, is ſaid to be Valenza de Alcantara, in Eſtremadura, near the Frontiers of Portugal.

Captain Friend ſailed under Convoy of the Scarborough Man of War, Capt. Stot, who is arrived at New-York. He had under his Care, for this Port (beſides Captain Friend) the Captains Wynn and Shurlock, the firſt of which is arrived, but the laſt quickly put back, ſuppoſed to have ſprung a Leak. Captains Davis and Chambers for New-York; the firſt has got ſafe in, and the laſt was left in Soundings. Captains Loring and Adams, for Boſton. And Captain M'Nab, for Virginia.

By Captain Lamont, from the Havannah, there is Advice, that the Provincials, and a Number of the Regulars, chiefly ſick Men, were to ſail for the Continent about the 20th of laſt Month, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship Intrepid of 64 Guns. And that Commodore Keppel had ſailed from the Havannah, with ſeven Ships of the Line, ſuppoſed to be gone to look out for the French Men of War that lately ſailed from Cape-François.

ANNAPOLIS, November 11.

On Sunday laſt came to Town, a young Man, Apprentice to the Owners of the late Ship Phœnix, who gives us the following moſt diſmal Account of the Loſs of that Ship, and her Cargo of Slaves. The Ship Phœnix, Captain William McGachen, mounting 12 Nine-Pounders, ſail'd from Africa on the 5th of July laſt, with 346 Slaves, for this Place, whither ſhe was Conſign'd, and call'd in at the Iſland of St. Thomas on her Paſſage: Wedneſday the 20th of October, between the Latitude of 37, and 38, and about a hundred Leagues to the Eaſtward of our Capes, they were taken by a violent Storm, which Founder'd her, and obliged them to cut away her Maſts about Two o'Clock next Morning, when ſhe was juſt overſetting, and had Eight Feet Water in the Hold; all their Proviſions and Water being Stove, the Pump-Wells beat to pieces, and both Pumps choak'd: Afterwards they got out the Pumps, and fix'd them in the Hatch-ways, with which, and by Bailing out Water, they kept her from ſinking; but had nothing to Eat, nor any thing to Drink, except 5 Bottles of Vinegar, and a ſmall quantity of Shrub, with which they moiſten'd their Mouths at Times; but the Slaves had nothing: In this deplorable ſituation they continued 'till Monday the 25th, when, if their Diſtreſs would admit of Augmentation, it was occaſion'd by an Inſurrection of the Negroes; but they were ſubdued after Killing between 50 and 60 of them, and throwing them overboard. Next Day, (Tueſday the 27th) Capt. Mackie, in the King-George, from Londonderry, bound into Delaware, very Providentially diſcovered them, and took Capt. McGachen, two Gentlemen his Paſſengers, and the whole Ship's Crew, being in all 36 Souls, our Informant Maſter Larkin Hammond being one of them, from the Wreck, on board his Veſſel, and Landed them the beginning of laſt Week at New-Caſtle; altho' when he took them on board he was ſcant of Proviſions and Water, and had 198 Paſſengers from Ireland: But, the poor and moſt miſerable Blacks, to the Number of upwards of 260, were, by a terrible Neceſſity, left on board the founder'd Phœnix, where they doubtleſs all Periſh'd.

We had on Friday Night and Saturday laſt, a Northeaſterly Storm of Snow, which is much earlier in the Year for ſuch Weather, than can be remembred: In ſome Places, the Snow, together with the Sleet which preceded it, made a great Number of young Trees, eſpecially Hiccories, which had not ſhed all their Leaves) ſo very heavy, that many as large as a Man's Thigh, were hereby broke in two.

To Meſſieurs GREEN and RIND.

Gentlemen,

INjured in ſo ſenſible a Part as I have been, and having ſuch a palpable Proof of the Infidelity of a Wife I have moſt tenderly Loved, I hope I ſhall not expoſe myſelf to the Cenſures of Malignity itſelf, if I endeavour to avert the leſſer Evils it may ſtill be in her Power to make me ſuffer. Too long lulled by conjugal Affection, and by parental Regards, have I been blind to Circumſtances which amounted to the ſtrongeſt Conviction with every other Perſon, and not until the moſt open Detection has removed every Hope of Excuſe, is it that I declare to Her and to the World, from henceforward, that I remove her from my Bed, from my Houſe, and, need I add, my Affections; that I will never hereafter pay any Debts of her Contracting, and that it will ever give me Pain to reflect ſhe muſt ſtill bear the Name of
